

LIVERPOOL DELFT SHIP-BOWLS.

By Philip Nelson, M.D., F.S.A.

SINCE the paper on the above subject was published in the Transactions,¹ four additional examples have been brought to the notice of the writer, and it appears desirable that they should be recorded. All these bowls except 1, a Brig, are decorated with full-rigged ships and are as follows :

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Succefs to the Fox ² Charles Courtney MASTER | D. 9 in. Clarke. |
| 2. Succefs to the Hope. 1761. | D. 9 $\frac{3}{8}$ in. Nelson. |
| 3. SUCCESS TO THE NANNY. Inscribed on a scroll. | D. 12 in. Manchester City Art Gallery. |
| 4. Succefs to the FAULKLAND Inscribed on a scroll, with a Cupid's head below its centre. The waves are green. | Cap ^{tn} Drake Commander. D. 10 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. Ganney. |

¹ Vol. 87.

² Orange rim; "cotton-wool" clouds and waves.