EDITORIAL NOTE

Transactions welcomes submissions of articles and research notes relating to the history of the old counties of Lancashire and Cheshire, their predecessors, and their successors. Articles submitted to Transactions do not have to be read as part of the Society's lecture programme, nor does delivery of a lecture guarantee subsequent publication in Transactions. We are always happy to discuss with authors the possibility of using appropriate versions of their work in either forum, however. The scholarly standard of Transactions is widely respected, and expert referees read and comment on all articles prior to their being accepted for publication: we are, as ever, most grateful to those referees for their valuable work.
