

TWO CURIOUS FINDINGS AT CORONER'S INQUESTS.

1660. 5 Apl. Richard Peircivall, Gent. late Maior and now Alderman and Coroner. Verdict : That the said Henry Halsall being in the Stable at M^{rs} Sandifords an Inne & hostler there, on the fift day of Apr. instant ab^t 8^t of y^e Clocke in the Evening was soe stricken and hurt on the left syde of his head with a gray Meere of the Goods of M^{rs} Alice Eaton of Chest^r widow then & there being that part of his Braines came forth, whereupon the said Henry Halsall imediately dyed of the same hurts w^{ch} was by misfortune and misadventure accedentially donne, that being as we conceive the very occasion of his untymely death. L.R., iij., 703.

1663. 27 Dec. Tho. Andoe p hon. William Stanley, Arm^l. Co^t. Verdict : That about the houre of six of the Clocke of this morninge Elizabeth the wife of Wm. Ack'rs of Liv'poole aforesd. to the dishono^r of God became felo de se & murdered her selfe by wilfull drowninge herselfe in a well at the back of the now dwelling house of the said Wm. Ack'rs in Liv'poole aforesd. & belonginge to the same house. L.R., iij., 762.

